

Nehemiah 10:1-39

Black Pew Bible pg. 406

Keys to Reading: After the wall was finished, the people gathered together to hear God's Word. They respond by doing what it said: confessing their sins and worshipping God.

Main Idea: Having been gripped by God's Word, the people have come together to commit themselves to God's covenant with them--that they would be His people just as He has been their God.

Theme: Holy living is the response to God's faithfulness to us.

Reflection Questions:

- How do you honor and remember God each day?
- What is your reaction when you hear the people entered into a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law (verse 29)?
- What are some ways that God might be calling you to demonstrate that your life is different because of His gift of salvation?
- In what ways have you neglected God and His house?

Act! Ask yourself: "Can people tell I am a follower of Jesus just by what I say and do?" Prayerfully ask God how you can (re-)commit to serving Him with your whole life in light of all God has done for you.

Reading Next Week: Nehemiah 11-12 (we will focus on Nehemiah 12:27-47)

Nehemiah 10:1-39

Black Pew Bible pg. 406

Keys to Reading: After the wall was finished, the people gathered together to hear God's Word. They respond by doing what it said: confessing their sins and worshipping God.

Main Idea: Having been gripped by God's Word, the people have come together to commit themselves to God's covenant with them--that they would be His people just as He has been their God.

Theme: Holy living is the response to God's faithfulness to us.

Reflection Questions:

- How do you honor and remember God each day?
- What is your reaction when you hear the people entered into a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law (verse 29)?
- What are some ways that God might be calling you to demonstrate that your life is different because of His gift of salvation?
- In what ways have you neglected God and His house?

Act! Ask yourself: "Can people tell I am a follower of Jesus just by what I say and do?" Prayerfully ask God how you can (re-)commit to serving Him with your whole life in light of all God has done for you.

Reading Next Week: Nehemiah 11-12 (we will focus on Nehemiah 12:27-47)

Nehemiah 10:1-39

Black Pew Bible pg. 406

Keys to Reading: After the wall was finished, the people gathered together to hear God's Word. They respond by doing what it said: confessing their sins and worshipping God.

Main Idea: Having been gripped by God's Word, the people have come together to commit themselves to God's covenant with them--that they would be His people just as He has been their God.

Theme: Holy living is the response to God's faithfulness to us.

Reflection Questions:

- How do you honor and remember God each day?
- What is your reaction when you hear the people entered into a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law (verse 29)?
- What are some ways that God might be calling you to demonstrate that your life is different because of His gift of salvation?
- In what ways have you neglected God and His house?

Act! Ask yourself: "Can people tell I am a follower of Jesus just by what I say and do?" Prayerfully ask God how you can (re-)commit to serving Him with your whole life in light of all God has done for you.

Reading Next Week: Nehemiah 11-12 (we will focus on Nehemiah 12:27-47)

