

Nehemiah 4:1-23

Black Pew Bible pg. 400

Keys to Reading: As the wall around Jerusalem is built, the people become disheartened by the enormity of the work and by those who opposed the rebuilding of the wall.

Main Idea: Under Nehemiah's strong leadership, the people persevere through opposition.

Theme: Encouragement in discouraging circumstances.

Reflection Questions:

- When was a time in your life that you were discouraged but remembering the goodness and strength of the Lord carried you through?
- What are some of the ways the work of the church is being opposed? Why is there opposition to the Gospel?
- Are you ready to face opposition because of your faith? How can you as a follower of Christ, prepare yourself to be ready to face opposition?

Act! Don't be a naysayer! Instead find one way that you can speak positive encouragement to someone facing a difficulty this week.

Reading Next Week: Nehemiah 5:1-19

Nehemiah 4:1-23

Black Pew Bible pg. 400

Keys to Reading: As the wall around Jerusalem is built, the people become disheartened by the enormity of the work and by those who opposed the rebuilding of the wall.

Main Idea: Under Nehemiah's strong leadership, the people persevere through opposition.

Theme: Encouragement in discouraging circumstances.

Reflection Questions:

- When was a time in your life that you were discouraged but remembering the goodness and strength of the Lord carried you through?
- What are some of the ways the work of the church is being opposed? Why is there opposition to the Gospel?
- Are you ready to face opposition because of your faith? How can you as a follower of Christ, prepare yourself to be ready to face opposition?

Act! Don't be a naysayer! Instead find one way that you can speak positive encouragement to someone facing a difficulty this week.

Reading Next Week: Nehemiah 5:1-19

Nehemiah 4:1-23

Black Pew Bible pg. 400

Keys to Reading: As the wall around Jerusalem is built, the people become disheartened by the enormity of the work and by those who opposed the rebuilding of the wall.

Main Idea: Under Nehemiah's strong leadership, the people persevere through opposition.

Theme: Encouragement in discouraging circumstances.

Reflection Questions:

- When was a time in your life that you were discouraged but remembering the goodness and strength of the Lord carried you through?
- What are some of the ways the work of the church is being opposed? Why is there opposition to the Gospel?
- Are you ready to face opposition because of your faith? How can you as a follower of Christ, prepare yourself to be ready to face opposition?

Act! Don't be a naysayer! Instead find one way that you can speak positive encouragement to someone facing a difficulty this week.

Reading Next Week: Nehemiah 5:1-19

