

Nehemiah 8:1-18

Black Pew Bible pg. 403

Keys to Reading: The wall is finished, the celebrations are over, and the people are back to their daily lives but they knew something was missing. They gather together to ask the priest to read God's Word to them.

Main Idea: The people rejoice in hearing God's Word; it moved their hearts to act on what they heard to remember God's holiness and live accordingly.

Theme: Knowing God's Word brings new life.

Reflection Questions:

- What does it say about God's people that even the priests didn't know what God's Word said?
- It is the people who compel the priests to read the Word. What does that reveal about our individual responsibility?
- What is it about God's Word that causes people to celebrate and do what it says?
- In what ways do you struggle to understand God's Word?

Act! Set aside some extra time this week to read God's Word. As you do, pray, asking God to stir in you a love for Him through His Word.
